Robert Soulman

My name is Robert Soulman and I'm a direct descendent of Sha Men. Moreover, 1000 years have passed recently and I was responsible with redrawing the pictures from "Shamanic Shields".

Also, I am in the process of spreading to 365 people these highly sought-after Shamanic images right now...

How come I came to do this? Was I born in a hidden cave in the middle of the Nature? No bloody way...

I am a native American born in the beautiful city of Dallas, TX. I lived a normal childhood. I finished a high school. I had a super normal Average Joe life...

My father NEVER told me about all of these Shamanic powers he had to give me until I was 30. That's 2 years ago. I was feeling he kept a BIG SECRET from me, because everything he dreamed in the night, could hold into his hand at day. It was like magic...

But I would have never believed in witchcraft, Shamanism, or any other type of Magick "mumbo-jumbo". Even though I had enough cues to prove me so.

However, I said to myself: "My father who is probably the luckiest man alive gave me these pictures as if they were his life's treasure. I owe him to at least try what he promised it is his legacy."

The compilation of the “shaman shields” freed my creative potential fully developing it. In saying the key sentence to myself I already had a vision of the shield and its inner meaning.

Many of my closer friends asked me to create shields for them. In following conversations they told me that the shields had unfolded an unbelievable effect on them.

May the accurate use of the cards as detailed in the introduction benefit your inner strength and may the symbol, expression of the manifested cosmic knowledge, fulfil its function and immanent energy and force to full extent for your intended purpose.

“Getting Everything I Want, Day-In Day-Out”

"Thank you so much for such inspiration. I always read the rituals with a sense of wonder. It seems to be able to touch me so deeply, and I thank you from my heart for sharing them with me.

I've used almost all shamanic rituals and I'm overjoyed!!! I only have to read them and good things are happening to me! I literally get every single day everything I want. Money, love, respect, friends and everything lately was so good as if I was living in Heaven. I'm so happy I can put it to words, but thank you again for giving me this amazing chance to change my life in so many wonderful ways.

Anna S. – Tucson”

“I Got The Perfect Job”

"I had just graduated college and I was offered a job I had always dreamed of my whole life. I was so excited. The only problem was I had to pass a test in order to get the job. I took the test and it was so hard. I almost cried in the middle of it. I knew I did not pass. There was no possible way. Then I've use the shamanic ritual “FOR MATERIAL WEALTH”. I knew I needed help. Also at that time in my life I was really starting to wonder about my faith. I started to use these rituals and my life changed. I was starting to feel things and see things (multiple numbers for example) I had never seen before. A couple weeks later, I received the results to my test and I passed. This story may not seem a great one but it truly was for me.

At this moment YOU are just one page away from your life's fortune. Believe me when I tell you this because you're one of the few 0.01% of people that will truly understand completely, from A-to-Z ... SHAMANISM. If you are the person I believe you are, you will finish these courses in record time. And after that you will feel great at how much you've learned from this. Introduction

The „shaman shields“ represent symbols which carry an inner energy that used in a small ritual can be applied in a beneficial way to the user himself or to others.

The shields were transfused intuitively to the medium itself and work suggestive as well as autosuggestive. This means that they can be applied for the users own benefit or transmitted by the user for the benefit of others.

The saying which is added to each “shaman shield” serves the purpose to focus the suggestive force into the intended direction as well as amplifying its success and effectiveness . The sayings are penned in verses therefore leading to a better understanding of their meaning on the other hand making the choice of the appropriate shield easier.

The initiation always starts with the same formula introducing the ritual. Provided that the shield is intended for someone else the formula reads as follows:

“Free from egoistic and self serving motives and solely to the well being of the person this shield is dedicated to, I order that this shield transmits the power it holds as according to the following saying onto and that this power shall remain active until successful completion. May the Lord of the worlds and highest being give this shield as well as his blessing.”

In case the shield is applied for one’s own need the formula reads as follows: “For the well being of myself, my family, relatives, acquaintances and friends, I order that this shield transmits the power it holds as according to the following saying onto me and that this power shall remain active until successful completion. May the Lord of the worlds and highest being give this shield as well as me his blessing.”

Following this the saying has to be vocalised whereas intensely thinking of the person this power is meant to be passed onto. Is the ritual intended for the user himself he should project himself into the shield in thought.

In most cases the concentrated power of thought is sufficient to channel the power of the shield onto the target.

Because such energy initiations constitute highly effective suggestions it is strongly warned – as within all of the cosmic energy area – that these initiations should under no circumstances be abused for negative or occult evil suggestions. This kind of abuse can render the shield ineffective or even, according to the cosmic laws of action and reaction, cause the initiator harm. For this reason the formulas are always composed incorporating the will of god in order to prevent possible abuse.

Further it should be said that such a ritual requires a certain atmosphere and appropriate ambience. Therefore the initiation should be conducted in a place which is regarded to have a good vibe and harmony. The use of joss sticks or scented candles as well as use of normal candles may serve the reader as an incentive to create a more positive and suitable atmosphere. Too loud music even music geared towards meditation can have a negative effect on the concentration of the person conducting the ceremony and should therefore not be used at all. The same goes for smoking as well as the consumption of beverages of any kind during the ceremony.

It be said that energy suggestions are always connected to a relative amount of transmission of energy which can not be estimated by a person. Due that fact it is certainly NOT counterproductive to cleanse one's body before the ceremony by taking a relaxing bath or shower. A clean body acts in this case the same way a clean wire does – it transmits energy a lot faster and accurately!

The initiation can also be conducted over multiple days although it is advised to conduct the initiation during 1 day only. The reason for that being that the human energy field is only capable of receiving these transmissions of energy for a limited amount of time. If this capability is minimised by an overload of energy the human mind reacts with negation or resignation which should be avoided. In terms of the capability of a person to take in/process information science has come to a very similar conclusion referring to “Stimulation dependent on duration of time”

In order to answer the question of how to correctly use the cards with the corresponding book you have to be aware that there are 3 options of how to use the cards. These options are listed below whereas it depends on the purpose they are being used for which one to chose.

1. Intention:

I want to help a person to solve a to them seemingly overwhelming situation whereas I know exactly what helps this person the most or which case is best suited to them.

also applicable to the user of the shields himself!

2. Intention:

I want to help a person to solve a to them seemingly overwhelming situation whereas I do not know exactly what helps this person the most or which case is best suited to them.

3. Intention:

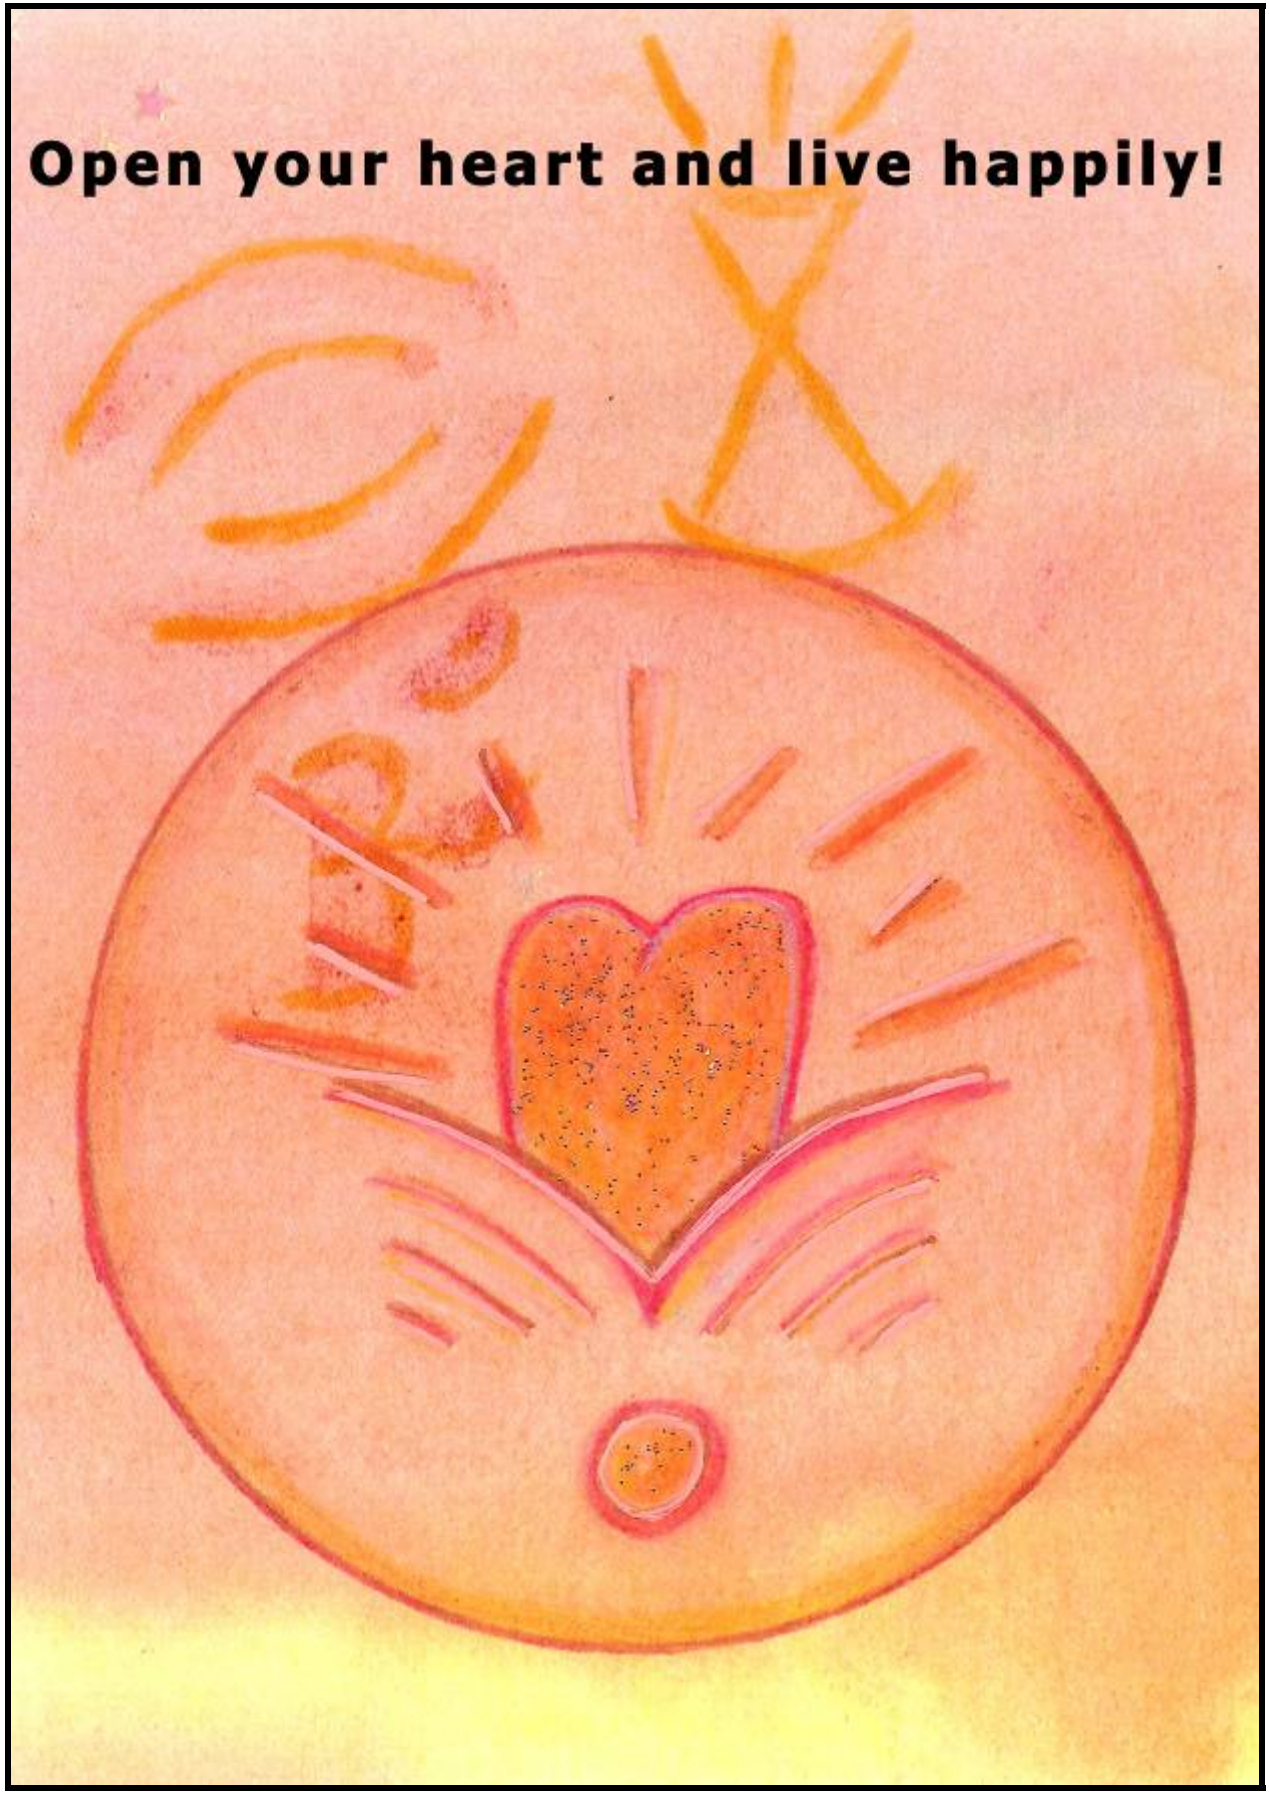

I want to initiate a shield for a certain person or myself whereas I do not know in advance what they/I require and reflect intuitively on the moment. All I know is that I want to do something for their well being and therefore make the initiation an instant decision.

The 3 abovementioned intentions require different procedures in choosing the appropriate shields. These are as follows:

- I look for the shield most suited to the target (person) and initiate the ceremony.
- I lay out the shields facing upwards choosing an image whereas I reflect on the character of the target and its problem.
- I lay out the shields with the neutral side facing upwards and select a card/shield whereas I concentrate on the target (or myself) and their (my) dilemma or I let a person in close relation to the target select an image or a card.

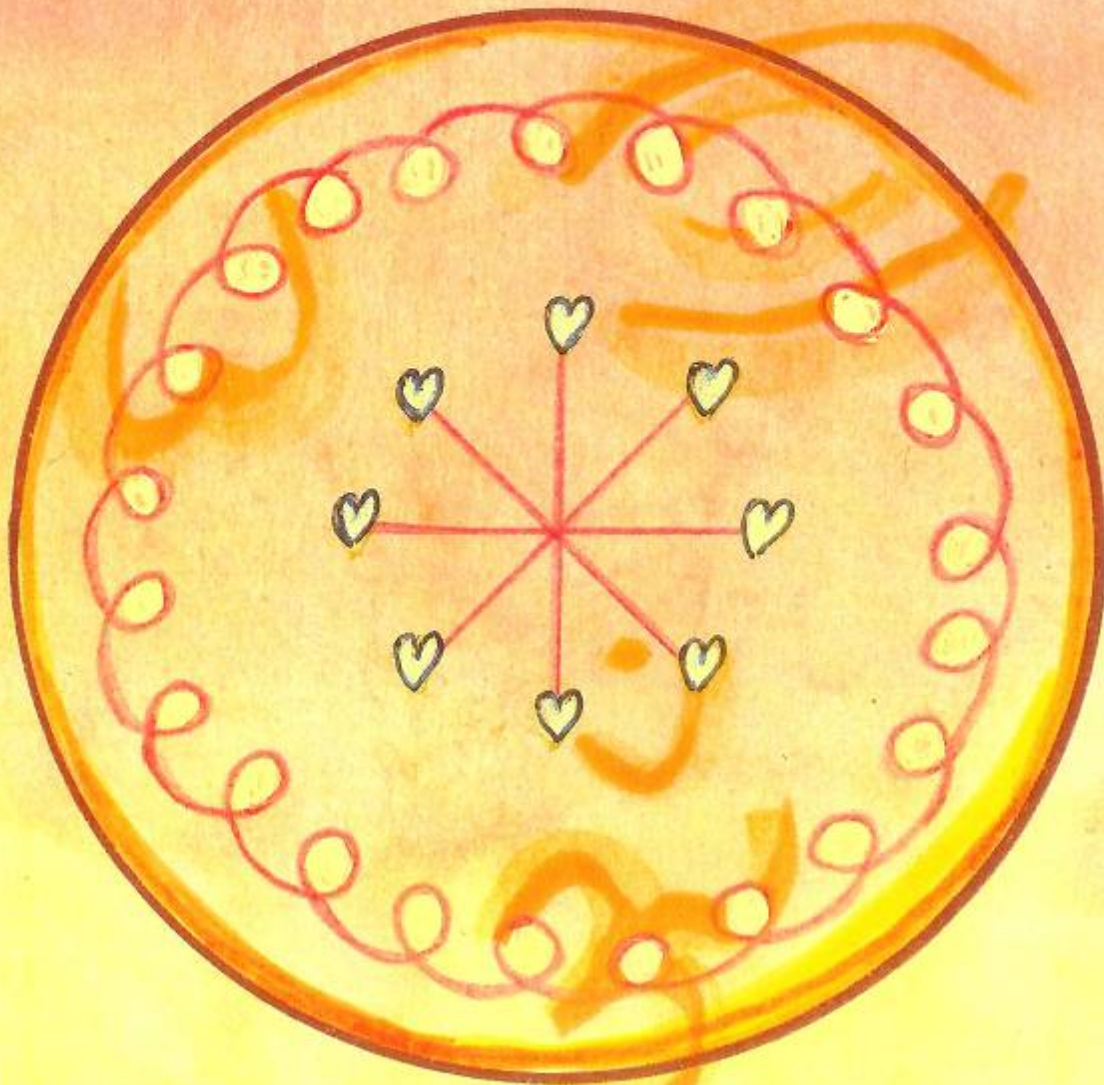

All of these options are possible but the relevant choice has to be made by the reader him/herself.
